

UNIMAK OF MAKENI SIERRA LEONE

Dear Friends and Partners,

We are happy to continue keeping you posted with recent happenings and various activities that were carried out in UNIMAK in the month of April, 2022.

UNIMAK as a private university continues to strive in radiating and building the culture of civilization of love. This is shown in varied ways such as: spiritual gathering, organizing academics and public lectures to bring out the giftedness in both staff and students, creating an environment of inclusivity, gender equality and research writing.

This month, academic research papers were published in different fields of study such as Education with the topic "Critique of Sierra Leone's Education Policy" by Foday Augustine Bagura A PhD. Candidate and Registrar in the university of Makeni. Others include Agriculture and food Sciences, and Public Health "Inherent Mothering Ability of Indigenous Hen Under Extensive Free- Range Management, A close observational study" This was co- Authored by Dr. Saidu Kanu, Sr. Magdalene P. Umoh and others. University of Makeni.

UNIMAK is a place for Students, Staff, and the Community. Our staff is diversified from all regions of the world.

We are proud to position Sierra Leone on the research map of various spheres through our staff, through our commitment to producing quality research that meets international standards

HOW to donate

BANK NAME: SIERRA LEONE
COMMERCIAL BANK (SLCB)

TO DONATE IN USD $

BBAN 003300101176110131

TO DONATE IN GBP £

BBAN :003006011736212119

TO DONATE IN EUR €

BBAN:00300601136712154

RESEARCH PUBLICATIONS

1. Bad Education: the politics of fake degrees in Sierra Leone by Ibrahim Barrie, University of Makeni
2. Critique of Sierra Leone Education Policy by Mr. Foday Augustine Bangura, University of Makeni

San Pablo University Professor schooled our first year Mass Communication student.

In April 2022 San Pablo University Historia Professor Richard Ricardo Antonio schooled first year Mass Communication students on the conflict in Ukraine. He was very impressed with the participation of the students. Every year professors from San Pablo University in Communication Department engage staff and students of the Mass Communication Department in UNIMAK.

A team from the University visited the Chinese Ambassador to Sierra Leone.

A team from the University of Makeni headed by the Vice Chancellor Rev. Fr. Prof. Joseph A. Turay paid a courtesy call to the Chinese Ambassador to Sierra Leone His Excellency Ambassador Hu Zhangliang. The Human Resource Director Madam Veronica Kamara and the Director of the China Africa Institute Alpha Mohamed Jalloh accompanied the Vice Chancellor.

UNDP donates assorted technical equipment to UNIMAK

UNDP donated assorted equipment for various purposes. The equipment were presented to the Registrar of the University of Makeni Mr, Foday Augustine Bangura and the MBA Entrepreneurship coordinator Mr. Peter Lansana. This is the first time UNDP is making such a donation to UNIMAK we appreciate their kind gesture.

The Chinese Ambassador donates to UNIMAK

The Chinese Ambassador to Sierra Leone recently donated computer accessories to UNIMAK. Staff and students of UNIMAK are grateful to His Excellency Ambassador Hu Zhangliang for this donation

SOME OF THE KEY NOTE SPEAKERS

The University of Makeni Organised a Symposium that Examines Sierra Leone at 61 years old.

This Event took place at the University Auditorium

The Discussion centered on the opportunities and challenges for nation building.

VICE CHANCELLOR

Rev. Prof. Joseph A. Turay

The Rev. Father Prof. Joseph Turay goes with the Theme:

THE AFRICA WE WANT

In his presentation, he said

"As a Country we need a Vision to Create the country we desire "

Senior Lecturer

Rev. Sister Magdalene

According to Rev. Sister Magdalene she said "Health brings Growth and Development to our Nation"

The HR Manager

Madam Veronica Kamara

A PHD candidate in the Human Resource Management Department spoke about Women in Leadership

UNIMAK Mass Communication Team took part in the
Sierra Leone Association of Journalists (SLAJ)
Press Freedom walk Day on the 3rd of MAY, 2022.

(R-L) HOD Mr. Mathew Kanu,

SRC Vice President Humu

Mr. Emile Jengo

Victory student

Mr. Shebora Samba Kamara

THANKS FOR YOUR ATTENTION AND SUPPORT.